

Conservation Tales: Seahorses Guide Reading Questions

Fill in the Blank

1. _____ Laboratory and Aquarium is the name of the aquarium where the story takes place.
2. The researcher was watching the seahorses' _____ open and close.
3. The _____ seahorses are the ones that carry the babies.
4. Seahorses can _____ to match their environment.

Multiple Choice

1. What do seahorses eat?
 - a. Fish
 - b. Seaweed
 - c. Plankton
2. Why are scientists concerned about seahorses?
 - a. They are small
 - b. Their population is dropping
 - c. They carry diseases
3. About how many types of seahorses are there?
 - a. 4 types
 - b. 47 types
 - c. 20 types

True/False

1. You should pick up every seahorse you see.
2. When seahorses have babies, they only have one at a time.
3. In the aquarium, the researchers test the water every day to make sure it is clean and healthy.

Higher Level Thinking Questions

1. What is something you learned about seahorses?
2. What are some ways that you can play a role in environmental conservation?
3. What is your favorite species of seahorses and why?